Notes

Blank cells are indicated by an "-". Indices are relative to the ten province median in the case of each individual specialty as well as for the Medical Specialists, Surgical Specialists, Total Specialists and Total Physicians groupings; that is the broad specialty indices are not weighted averages of the indices of each specialty. Consequently, it is possible that the index for Total Physicians does not fall between the index for Family Medicine and the index for Total Specialists in the case of some provinces. Similarly the index for Total Specialists may not lie between the Medical Specialists and Surgical Specialists indices.

* Excluding radiology and laboratory services.

 Anesthesia services and anesthesia specialists are excluded.
