

Notice — CMAJ welcomes obituaries submitted within 60 days of a death. These should be no longer than 200 words, and colourful writing is encouraged. Send to Patrick Sullivan, patrick.sullivan@cma.ca; fax 613 565-2382.

Cram, Douglas M., London, Ont.; University of Western Ontario, 1945; pediatrics; FRCPC; former staff, Victoria Hospital; director, health services, London Board of Education; associate professor, University of Western Ontario; medical officer of health, Middlesex-London District Health Unit. Died Dec. 14, 2002, aged 81; survived by his wife, Madeline, and 4 children. Son Dr. Gordon Cram stated: "His love of life was reflected in the putts missed, the fish that got away, wonderful gardens, his many paintings and his endless dedication to children of all ages."

Cram, Robert H., Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania; University of Western Ontario, 1941; orthopedics; FRCS; former clinical professor, University of Pennsylvania. Died Dec. 26, 2002, aged 86; survived by his wife, Nancy, and 2 daughters. Nephew Dr. Gordon Cram observed: "His benevolent work in Malawi was recognized with Rotary International's Distinguished Service Award."

Dadoush, Saliba F., Parksville, BC; University of Edinburgh (Scotland), 1966; former president, East Central District Medical and Dental Staff; staff, Department of Anesthesia, Yorkton Union Hospital. Died accidentally Dec. 26, 2002, aged 69.

Egan, Bernard J., Winnipeg; National University of Ireland, 1946; MCFP; former staff, Misericordia Hospital. Died Dec. 24, 2002, aged 81; survived by his wife, Ita, and 6 children. "He passed his love of golf, though only a modicum of his skill, on to his children."

Eustace, Thomas H., Entwistle, Alta.;

University of London (England), 1944; DOBstRCOG; MRCP; former staff, Drayton Valley Hospital. Died Dec. 23, 2002, aged 85; survived by his wife, Ann.

Jones, Arnold R., Pickering, Ont.; McGill University, 1953; family practice; practised in Stoney Creek, Ont., and Fruitvale, BC, then occupational medicine, General Motors of Canada, 1972-89. Died Jan. 10, 2003, aged 74.

Macdonald, E. Fraser, Yarmouth, NS; Dalhousie University, 1962; attending staff, Yarmouth Regional Hospital. Died Dec. 8, 2002, aged 66; survived by his wife, Audrey, 3 children and 3 stepchildren. Colleague James Goodwin commented: "For many years he gave loving care to a collection of some 200 birds, including 30 wonderfully colourful parrots, parakeets, cockatoos and macaws. He had one particular pet peeve. He always maintained passionately (and correctly) that the Aesculapian or medical caduceus was a staff entwined by 1 snake and not by 2, as it is usually depicted."

Nancekivell, H. Keith, Thunder Bay, Ont.; University of Toronto, 1944; general surgery; FACS, FCCP, FRCSC; former chief of staff and chief of surgery, McKellar Hospital. Died Jan. 27, 2003, aged 84; survived by his wife, Eleanor.

Revell, Daniel, Chilliwack, BC; University of Alberta, 1932; RCAMC, WW II; first resident in anesthesia at the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto; first resident director of anesthesiology, Children's Hospital, Winnipeg; chief anesthetist, St. Joseph's Hospital (Victoria General Hospital); inventor of the Revell Circulator. Died Sept. 12, 2002, aged 97. Colleague Paul Gareau commented: "He and his fellows were of the order of trainees who donated blood to pay their rent. In 1934 he spent 4 years in the Red Lake district when there were no roads and travel was accomplished by water in the summer and snowshoes and dogs in the winter." In 1998 the ASA

Newsletter reported: "An innovative Canadian, Dr. Daniel Revell, adapted automobile windshield fans/wiper motors to eliminate under-mask dead space, which contributed to rapid, deep ventilations in spontaneously breathing children under general anesthesia."

Ryan, John M., Edmonton; Dalhousie University, 1950; internal medicine; FACP, FRCPC; former chief, medicine, Misericordia Hospital. Died Dec. 22, 2002, aged 78.

Sahay, P. Ajoy, Scarborough, Ont.; Patna University (India), 1951; family medicine; CCFP; former staff, Toronto East and Scarborough general hospitals. Died Dec. 25, 2002, aged 76; survived by his wife, Dr. Usha, and a daughter.

Schiff, David, Edmonton; McGill University, 1961; pediatrics; FRCPC; former staff, University of Alberta and Walter C. Mackenzie hospitals; director, medical education, vice-chair, Department of Pediatrics, and professor, Division of Bioethics, University of Alberta. Died Dec. 22, 2002, aged 66.

Smith, J.K. Brydon, Toronto; University of Toronto, 1943; otolaryngology; FRCSC; former staff, St. Michael's and North York General hospitals. Died Dec. 23, 2002, aged 83; survived by his wife, Dorothy, and 2 children.

Sumner, John J., Gabriola Island, BC; University of Newcastle-Upon-Tyne (England), 1938; thoracic surgery; RAMC, WW II; awarded Military Cross for bravery with Queen's Royal Regiment; former associate staff, Maple Ridge Hospital; president, British Columbia College of Family Practice and British Columbia Medical Association. Died Dec. 18, 2002, aged 87; survived by his wife, Audrey, and 3 children.

Szabo, Joseph B., New River Beach, NB; Debrecen University (Hungary), 1950. Died Dec. 23, 2002, aged 77; survived by his wife, Karen.