

Appendix 1: (A) Histologic image showing epidermal necrosis (arrow), dense inflammatory suppurative infiltrate that was diffusely distributed (asterisk), and complete absence of adnexal structures in the dermis and adipose tissue (hematoxylin–eosin, original magnification  $\times 2$ ). (B) Dense inflammatory suppurative infiltrate (asterisk) (hematoxylin–eosin, original magnification  $\times 20$ ).