

Appendix 1: A 4-mm coronal CT maximum intensity image. Mediastinal windows confirm the presence of a loculated tuberculous empyema (red arrows). There is associated apical pleural thickening, in addition to thickening and upward retraction of the left major fissure (white arrow) secondary to pleuroparenchymal fibrosis.
