

Appendix 1 (as supplied by authors): Computed tomogram of the patient's thorax showing a large lower descending thoracic aortic aneurysm measuring 7.7 by 8.8 cm, with discontinuity of the posterior wall and large extrapleural fluid collection, both suggestive of a hemorrhaging ruptured aortic aneurysm.

